

Contents

Introduction 5

1. Function of Finance 7

1.1. Introduction to public finance. 7

1.2. Obstacles which the state encounters while attempting its objectives. 9

2. Tax System 11

2.1. Types of Taxation 11

2.2. Breakdown by taxation methods 11

2.3. Breakdown of taxes by tax recipients 13

2.4. Breakdown by tax bases: consumption, labor, capital 14

2.5. Environmental taxes 14

2.6. Taxes on Wealth. 14

2.7. Foreign Income Taxation 14

2.8. The Equity Implication of taxation: tax incidence 17

2.9. Influence of the fiscal policy on Macroeconomic 21

2.10. Tax expenditures 22

3. Public Finance 25

3.1. Main question in Public Finance 25

3.2. The Public Finance Act in Poland 28

3.3. Fiscal rules applicable in Poland 30

3.4. State budget 32

3.5. The current situation of public finance in Poland 33

4. Functioning of the Economic and Monetary Union 39

4.1. Objectives and history of the establishment of the Monetary Union 39

4.2. The mechanism of functioning of the euro zone and the convergence criteria 40

4.3. The fulfillment of the convergence criteria by Poland 41

4.4. The prospect of Polish membership in the Euro zone 42

4.5. The structure and objectives of the European Central Bank 44

4.6. Difficulties in the functioning of the euro zone 55

5. Corporate Finance	49
5.1 Sources of financial law	49
5.2 Audit of financial statements	50
5.3 The role of CFO	51
5.4 Balance sheet, Income Statement and cash flow	52
5.5 Ratio analysis	56
5.6 The market value and book value	60
5.7 The Time Value of Money	61
 6. Capital Market: basic issues	 67
6.1 Capital market as a source of capital	67
6.2 Functioning of the stock market	68
6.3 The most important capital markets in the world	68
 Annex. 1. General government expenditure – Eurostat classification	 70
Annex 2. Profit and loss account in the multiple-step variant	71
References	73
List of figures	75
List of tables	75
List of boxes	75