

Brief Table of Contents

Guided Tour	xiv
Supplements and Technology	xvi
Preface	xix
Acknowledgements	xxi
List of Abbreviations	xxiii
1 An Introduction to European Integration: Definitions and Terminology	1
2 A Brief History of European Integration	15
3 The Decision-Making Institutions of the European Union	41
4 The Theory of Trade and the EU	69
5 The Economics of Integration	102
6 The Single Market	121
7 From the Lisbon Strategy to Europe 2020	154
8 Movement of Labour, Immigration and Asylum	178
9 The Theory of Economic and Monetary Union	195
10 The Long Road to Economic and Monetary Union	216
11 The Eurozone: Structure, Performance and Outlook	232
12 The EU Budget	261
13 The Common Agricultural Policy	280
14 Environmental and Energy Policies	311
15 Regional Policy	338
16 Competition Policy	360
17 Industrial Policy	375
18 EU Trade and Aid Policies	386
19 EU Enlargement	414
References	443
Index	456

Detailed Table of Contents

Guided Tour	xiv	2.11 The European Community in the 1960s	25
Supplements and Technology	xvi	2.12 The 1969 Hague Summit	26
Preface	xix	2.13 The Community in the 1970s: the years of Eurosclerosis	26
Acknowledgements	xxi	2.14 The relaunching of integration: the Internal Market Programme	29
List of Abbreviations	xxiii	2.15 The Maastricht Treaty, economic and monetary union and the economic crisis	30
1 An Introduction to European Integration: Definitions and Terminology	1	2.16 EU enlargement	30
1.1 Introduction	1	2.17 From the Mediterranean Policy to the European Neighbourhood Policy	32
1.2 Questions of terminology	2	2.18 From the Luxembourg Process and the Lisbon Strategy to Europe 2020	33
1.3 The Common Foreign and Security Policy	3	2.19 From the Amsterdam to the Lisbon Treaty	33
1.4 From 'Justice and Home Affairs' to 'Freedom, Security and Justice'	4	Summary of key concepts	34
1.5 The changing membership of the EU	5	Questions for study and review	35
1.6 The definition of integration	5	Chapter 2 Appendix: A chronology of European integration	36
1.7 The stages of integration	5
1.8 Early views of approaches to integration	7	3 The Decision-Making Institutions of the European Union	41
1.9 The acquis communautaire	8	3.1 Introduction	41
1.10 Subsidiarity	8	3.2 Towards the Lisbon Treaty	42
1.11 The competences of the EU	9	3.3 The decision-making institutions of the EU	45
1.12 The EU in the world	10	3.4 The European Commission	45
Summary of key concepts	13	3.5 The Council	49
Questions for study and review	14	3.6 The European Council	50
2 A Brief History of European Integration	15	3.7 Voting rules in the Council of Ministers	52
2.1 Introduction	15	3.8 The European Parliament	55
2.2 The origins of European integration	16	3.9 The role of national parliaments	59
2.3 Background to the integration process: the 1940s	16	3.10 The European Economic and Social Committee	60
2.4 Integration by sector	17	3.11 The Committee of the Regions	60
2.5 The European Coal and Steel Community	19	3.12 The Court of Justice	61
2.6 Attempts at co-operation in defence	20	3.13 The Court of Auditors	62
2.7 Agriculture: towards the creation of the Common Agricultural Policy	21	3.14 The decision-making procedures of the EU	62
2.8 The proposed 'green pool'	21	3.15 'Flexibility' or 'enhanced co-operation'	63
2.9 Towards the Treaties of Rome	22
2.10 The Treaties of Rome	23

3.16	Evaluation	65	5.4	Trade diversion	104
	Summary of key concepts	66	5.5	The effect of a customs union on the partner country	105
	Questions for study and review	67	5.6	The difference between non-discriminatory tariffs and preferential arrangements	107
4	The Theory of Trade and the EU	69	5.7	The conditions under which a customs union is likely to increase welfare	110
4.1	Introduction	69	5.8	Terms of trade effects	111
4.2	The main arguments in favour of free trade	70	5.9	The dynamic effects of integration	111
4.3	Absolute advantage	70	5.10	Growth and integration	112
4.4	Comparative advantage	70	5.11	Political economy arguments to explain why countries may prefer regional trade blocs to multilateral liberalization	113
4.5	The Heckscher–Ohlin theorem	72	5.12	Empirical research on the effects of integration	114
4.6	The Heckscher–Ohlin–Samuelson theorem	74	5.13	Regionalism versus multilateralism	117
4.7	New trade theories	75		Summary of key concepts	118
4.8	Intra-industry trade and product differentiation	75		Questions for study and review	119
4.9	Static economies of scale	76	6	The Single Market	121
4.10	The learning process	77	6.1	Introduction	121
4.11	Tariffs	78	6.2	Background to the Single Market Programme	122
4.12	The economic effects of introducing a tariff in a 'small nation'	79	6.3	Expected advantages of the Single European Market	123
4.13	The effect of introducing a production subsidy	82	6.4	The timetable for the introduction of the Single European Market	125
4.14	The effect of introducing a tariff in a 'large nation'	83	6.5	The Single European Act	125
4.15	The effects of introducing a tariff on the exporting country	84	6.6	Implementation of the Single Market Programme	126
4.16	Non-tariff barriers and the 'new protectionism'	86	6.7	The main elements of the Single Market Programme: the Schengen Agreement and other aspects of the removal of frontier controls	128
4.17	The main arguments presented in favour of protection	91	6.8	Differences in national rules and regulations	130
4.18	Second best	91	6.9	Fiscal harmonization	132
4.19	More recent arguments in favour of protection: strategic trade theory	92	6.10	The liberalization of public procurement	136
4.20	The political economy of protectionism	93	6.11	Liberalization of the service industries	136
	Summary of key concepts	94	6.12	The liberalization of individual service industries	139
	Questions for study and review	95	6.13	Assessments of the Single Market Programme	146
	Chapter 4 Appendices		6.14	The impact of the Single Market Programme Project on third countries	148
	Appendix 1: A numerical example of the effect of introducing a tariff in a small nation	96
	Appendix 2: A numerical example of the effects of introducing a tariff in a large nation	98
5	The Economics of Integration	102
5.1	Introduction	102
5.2	The costs and benefits of integration	102
5.3	Trade creation	103

15	'Completing' the Single Market: From the 10-point plan of 2003 to the initiative of 2007 to create a Single Market for the twenty-first century	148	8.2	The effects of migration	179
16	The Monti Report of 2010	149	8.3	The causes of migration	181
17	Towards a Single Market Act	150	8.4	Restrictions on migration	181
18	Evaluation	150	8.5	The impact of migration on wages and employment	182
	Summary of key concepts	151	8.6	Types of immigration	183
	Questions for study and review	152	8.7	EU policies towards internal labour movement	184
	Research tasks	153	8.8	The pattern of labour movement within the EU	185
7	From the Lisbon Agenda to Europe 2020	154	8.9	The development of EU policies with regard to immigration and asylum from the rest of the world	188
7.1	Introduction	154	8.10	Immigration to the EU from the rest of the world	190
7.2	The diagnosis: lagging growth and productivity	155	8.11	Evaluation	192
7.3	The economic crisis and competitiveness	158		Summary of key concepts	193
7.4	The challenges of international trade and globalization	158		Questions for study and review	194
7.5	The original Lisbon Agenda	160	9	The Theory of Economic and Monetary Union	195
7.6	The Sapir Report	161	9.1	Introduction	195
7.7	The Kok Report	161	9.2	The theory of optimum currency areas	196
7.8	The 2005 revision of the Lisbon Agenda	162	9.3	Cost/benefit analyses of economic and monetary union	197
7.9	The Europe 2020 programme	162	9.4	The benefits of economic and monetary union	197
10	Smart growth: better policies for the information society and research and development	163	9.5	The main costs of economic and monetary union	199
11	Inclusive growth: the link to EU social policy	165	9.6	How effective is the exchange rate mechanism in correcting asymmetric shocks?	203
12	The early years of EC social policy	166	9.7	Does the likelihood of asymmetric shocks increase or decrease as the level of integration rises?	204
13	EU social policy since the Single Market Programme	166	9.8	Alternative mechanisms to the exchange rate instrument	204
14	EU social policy in the Lisbon Treaty	168	9.9	A comparison of costs and benefits	205
15	Employment in the treaties	169	9.10	Is the EU an optimal currency area?	207
16	The European Employment Strategy	169	9.11	Evaluation	209
17	Assessment of the European Employment Strategy	170		Summary of key concepts	210
18	Inclusive growth: fighting poverty and social exclusion in the EU	173		Questions for study and review	211
19	Evaluation	174		Chapter 9 Appendices
	Summary of key concepts	175		Appendix 1: The Mundell–Fleming model	212
	Questions for study and review	177		Appendix 2: An illustration of the role of the exchange rate mechanism using aggregate demand and supply curves	213
8	Movement of Labour, Immigration and Asylum	178
8.1	Introduction	178

10 The Long Road to Economic and Monetary Union	216	12 The EU Budget	261
10.1 Introduction	216	12.1 Introduction	261
10.2 The international monetary system in the early years of the Community	216	12.2 The main features of the EU budget	262
10.3 The Hague Summit: 'EMU by 1980'	217	12.3 The basic principles of the EU budget	265
10.4 The snake in the tunnel	218	12.4 The financing of the Community up until 1980	266
10.5 The launching of EMS	218	12.5 The continuing difficulties of the Community budget during the 1980s	268
10.6 The EMS mechanisms	219	12.6 The evolution of the sources of revenue of the EU budget	269
10.7 The problem of asymmetry in the operation of the EMS	220	12.7 Financial perspectives and multi-annual financial frameworks	270
10.8 The phases of operation of the EMS	221	12.8 The multi-annual financial framework for the 2007–13 period	272
10.9 The impossible trinity	223	12.9 The post-2013 multi-annual financial framework	275
10.10 The 1980s and 1990s: back to EMU	223	12.10 Financial irregularities	276
10.11 The Maastricht Treaty	224	12.11 Evaluation and outlook	277
10.12 The convergence criteria	225	Summary of key concepts	278
10.13 The three stages in the introduction of EMU	225	Questions for study and review	279
10.14 Countries outside the euro area	229
10.15 Evaluation	230	13 The Common Agricultural Policy	280
Summary of key concepts	230	13.1 The reasons for public intervention in agriculture	280
Questions for study and review	231	13.2 Agriculture in the Treaty of Rome	281
11 The Eurozone: Structure, Performance and Outlook	232	13.3 The agreement on the CAP mechanisms	282
11.1 Introduction	232	13.4 The 1964 agreement on common price levels	284
11.2 The Eurosystem and the European System of Central Banks	233	13.5 The effects of EU price support policy	285
11.3 The tasks of the Eurosystem	234	13.6 The 1968 Mansholt Plan	288
11.4 The independence of and accountability of the European Central Bank	236	13.7 The agrimonetary system	289
11.5 Fiscal policy in a monetary union	237	13.8 The ongoing need for reform of the CAP	289
11.6 The Stability and Growth Pact	239	13.9 Attempts at reform in the 1970s and 1980s	293
11.7 The first decade of the Eurosystem	241	13.10 The 1992 MacSharry Reform	296
11.8 The euro in the international financial system	245	13.11 The 1999 Berlin Agreement on Agenda 2000	297
11.9 The economic crisis from 2007	246	13.12 The CAP and the enlargements of 2004 and 2007	299
11.10 The eurozone crisis	251	13.13 The Mid-term Review or Fischler Reform	301
11.11 Reform of EU economic governance	255	13.14 The ongoing CAP reform process	302
11.12 Evaluation and outlook for the euro	258	13.15 The CAP Health Check	304
Summary of key concepts	259	13.16 The CAP post-2013	305
Questions for study and review	260	13.17 Evaluation and outlook	307

Summary of key concepts	309	16 Competition Policy	360
Questions for study and review	310	16.1 Introduction	360
14 Environmental and Energy Policies	311	16.2 The theoretical basis for competition policy	361
14.1 Introduction	311	16.3 The institutions responsible for EU competition policy	365
14.2 The economic basis of environmental policy	312	16.4 Antitrust enforcement	365
14.3 Instruments of environmental policy	314	16.5 The 2004 reform	369
14.4 The evolution of EU environmental policy	315	16.6 Merger control	369
14.5 Environmental policy in the treaties	317	16.7 Liberalization and state aid	371
14.6 The European Environment Agency	318	16.8 Evaluation	373
14.7 The international dimension	319	Summary of key concepts	373
14.8 EU policies: towards an integrated approach to energy and climate change	324	Questions for study and review	374
14.9 Biofuels in the EU	325	17 Industrial Policy	375
14.10 The EU Emissions Trading System	326	17.1 Introduction	375
14.11 Evaluation of EU environmental policy	328	17.2 The theoretical basis of interventionist industrial policy	376
14.12 The evolution of the EU energy market	329	17.3 Industrial policy in the treaties	379
14.13 The evolution of EU energy policy	333	17.4 The early years: a market-orientated approach to industrial policy	379
14.14 The attempt at unbundling of the EU energy sector	334	17.5 Towards a more active Community industrial policy	380
14.15 Evaluation of EU energy policy	335	17.6 The Bangemann Memorandum and after	382
Summary of key concepts	336	17.7 Promoting competitiveness	382
Questions for study and review	336	17.8 EU research and development policy	383
15 Regional Policy	338	17.9 Evaluation and outlook	384
15.1 Introduction	338	Summary of key concepts	385
15.2 The view that integration leads to less income disparity	339	Questions for study and review	385
15.3 The view that integration leads to greater regional disparity	340	18 EU Trade and Aid Policies	386
15.4 EU instruments for cohesion and regional policy	341	18.1 Introduction	386
15.5 The evolution of EU regional policy	344	18.2 The GATT/WTO	391
15.6 EU cohesion and regional policy over the 2007–13 period	347	18.3 The Generalised System of Preferences	393
15.7 Has there been convergence in the EU?	351	18.4 The EU and developing countries	394
15.8 Studies of the effects of EU cohesion policy	355	18.5 The evolution of EU policy towards the ACP countries	396
15.9 Cohesion policy after 2013 and the need to select an appropriate development strategy	356	18.6 The Economic Partnership Agreements	398
15.10 Evaluation and outlook	357	18.7 The EPAs and the debate about the effectiveness of EU development policy	398
Summary of key concepts	358	18.8 EU–US trade and investment	399
Questions for study and review	359	18.9 The institutional framework for transatlantic co-operation	400
		18.10 Trade disputes between the EU and the USA	402
		18.11 Wider Europe: the European Neighbourhood Policy	404
		18.12 The Mediterranean region	405
		18.13 The Russian Federation	406

18.14 EU relations with Asia	407	19.6 The Copenhagen criteria	422
18.15 EU relations with China	408	19.7 The pre-accession strategy	423
18.16 EU relations with Japan	408	19.8 The accession negotiations	424
18.17 EU relations with India	409	19.9 Extending EU policies to the new member states	425
18.18 EU-Latin American relations	409	19.10 EU policy towards the Western Balkans	427
18.19 Evaluation	410	19.11 The candidate countries	430
Summary of key concepts	411	Summary of key concepts	438
Questions for study and review	412	Questions for study and review	439
19 EU Enlargement	414	Chapter 19 Appendices
19.1 Introduction	414	Appendix 1: EU-Turkish relations	440
19.2 The theory of clubs	415	Appendix 2: The EU and Cyprus	440
19.3 A brief chronology of the enlargement process	416	References	443
19.4 Trade and aid arrangements between the EU and CEECs before enlargement	418	Index	456
19.5 The 'second-generation' Europe Agreements	420		