

Contents

AUTHORS' FOREWARD.....	9
-------------------------------	----------

PART I: Big Picture Overview

LOOKING INSIDE THE FIRM	27
I. The Accounts Receivable Investment	27
Why Carry Accounts receivable?.....	27
Measuring the Receivables Investment.....	28
Trade Credit and Elasticity of Demand.....	31
What Does Offering Trade Credit Cost?	34
II. The Perennial Finance-Sales Tension	40
III. The Psychological Dimension of TCM.....	42
Easily Overlooked.....	42
Leaning on the Trade.....	42
Collection Games.....	43
The Role of Confidence in Patience.....	44
LOOKING OUTSIDE THE FIRM.....	47
IV. Macro-economic Conditions.....	47
Business Failure: Bad Debts.....	47
How Much Risk Is Out There? Bankruptcy Patterns in Poland	48
Bad Debts as a Cost of Business	50
The Credit Cycle	51
Industry Patterns in TCM	53
V. Institutional Infrastructure	54
Legal Status of Unsecured Trade Debt.....	56
Access to Bank Credit.....	61
Trust and Business Confidence	67
Credit Information Infrastructure	69
Credit Bureau-Generated Credit Scores.....	100
Polish Market	107

PART II: The TCM Collections Cycle

OVERVIEW OF THE TCM COLLECTIONS CYCLE.....	119
I. Formulating A Credit Policy	121
Strategic context.....	121
Terms of sales: Liberal or Tight?	132
II. Information Gathering.....	136
Information Appetite	136
Customer Files	138
Establishing Identity.....	139
Guarding Against the Possibility of Fraud	140
Information Sources	157
Trade References	159
The Economics of Search Costs	163
III. Credit Risk Assessment	165
The Five Cs in Action	173
Setting Credit Limits	195
Credit Scoring	199
IV. Monitoring & Collection	212
Collection Steps.....	212
V. Dealing With Default	226
Dunning	228

PART III: Financial Management Issues

I. Liquidity Management	271
TCM & Liquidity Management.....	271
Arranging bank credit	276
Accounts Payable Management.....	303
Cash Management	314
II. Overtrading	318
III. Risk Transference	324
Bank Letter of Credit (L/C)	324
Domestic Credit Insurance	327
Factoring.....	345

APPENDIX A
Some Suggested TCM Reforms.....	375
APPENDIX B
Useful Websites.....	377
APPENDIX C
Glossary of Trade Credit Management Terms.....	379
REFERENCES	419