

CONTENTS

Preface.....	v
Acknowledgments	vi
Dedication	viii

INTRODUCTION TO CONTENT AND FORMAT

Introduction to Content: Writing in English is Different	3
Instructions for Format: How to Use this Book	8

THE THEORY

PART I	Why Writing in English is Different	13
	1 The Theory of Contrastive Rhetoric: Why You Have to Think and Write Differently in English.....	14
	2 Applying Theory to Practice: Working Definitions.....	22

THE STRATEGIES

PART II	Editing for Strength: Less is More	29
	3 Structure Words: The Shorter, the Better	32
	4 Eliminating Deadwood: Cut, Cut—Then Cut Some More	36
	5 Replace or Delete? Determining the Necessity of Both Content and Language	44
PART III	Editing for Clarity: the Writer's Obligation.....	53
	6 Avoiding Ambiguity: Using Pronouns Correctly.....	54
	7 Active vs. Passive Voice: Converting Weak Language into Strong Writing.....	68
	8 Placing Words Where They Belong: Using Modifiers Correctly.....	87
	9 From Grammar to Style: Using Parallel Structure	103
	10 Punctuating for Clarity in Both American and British English.....	116
PART IV	Organization and Argumentation: Anglo-American Style.....	137
	11 Paragraphing: Creating Coherent Units of Meaning.....	138
	12 What Goes Where in a Paper: Organizing and Outlining.....	153
	13 Anglo-American Argumentation: How to Develop and Frame a Logical Argument.....	182

CONTENTS

PART V	Journal Analysis: Analyzing Journals for Elimination and Submission	199
14	Understanding Submission Guidelines: What They Mean and What Editors Want.....	202
15	Journal Analysis: Eliminating and Choosing Journals	209
16	Journal Analysis: Using Timesaving Ideas and Analysis Models	225
17	Journal Analysis: Analyzing and Writing Abstracts	233
PART VI	Revision and (Re)Submission: Creating a Publishable Paper	251
18	Recognizing, Studying, and Developing Style	252
19	Revising, Revising—and Revising Again	267
20	Writing Submission and Revision Letters.....	275
	CONCLUDING REMARKS	276
	END MATTER
	Notes	288
	Bibliography	296
	Permissions	302
	Index.....	304
	About the Author.....	309