

Contents

| | |
|---|------------|
| Introduction: The Line of Falling Dominos | 1 |
| Why I wrote this how-to book | |
| 1. Reward and Punishment | 5 |
| Is your customer experience making you money? Costing you money? Do you know? | |
| 2. First Why, then What | 23 |
| Does your organization solve the right essential problem? | |
| 3. Get in the Way (in a Nice Way) | 47 |
| What is the sure way to make your customers' short list of credible options? | |
| 4. Virtual Reality | 75 |
| Before they buy, your customers are imagining your solution in action. Are you? | |
| 5. Commitment Time | 103 |
| Do your customers emerge from their purchase empowered and affirmed, or ready to leave? | |
| 6. Real Reality | 131 |
| Imagination time is over. Now your solution is being used. Are you proving your promise? | |
| 7. Big Wheel Keep on Turnin' | 167 |
| Your customers' needs evolve. Are you proactive? | |
| 8. Unlocking Sustainability | 201 |
| What drives decision making in your organization? | |