

Contents

Figures . . . . .	7
Tables . . . . .	9
Boxes . . . . .	10
Preface . . . . .	11
Chapter 1. What is politics? . . . . .	13
1.1. Why does politics exist? The origins of politics. . . . .	13
1.2. The rights of the state and the rights of individuals . . . . .	15
1.3. Definitions of politics . . . . .	19
Chapter 2. Basic concepts of politics and political science . . . . .	25
2.1. Development of political science. . . . .	25
2.2. Political science within social sciences. . . . .	27
2.3. Kinds of states, governments and political systems . . . . .	31
2.4. Historical evolution of democratic processes . . . . .	37
2.5. Measuring democracy. . . . .	41
Chapter 3. Characteristics of democratic systems . . . . .	47
3.1. Presidential and parliamentary systems . . . . .	47
3.2. Legislative assemblies . . . . .	48
3.3. Electoral market in democracies . . . . .	53
3.4. Kinds of political parties . . . . .	55
3.5. Ways of financing the political parties . . . . .	57
3.6. Legislative elections . . . . .	61
3.7. Term limits: populism or effective change? . . . . .	65
Chapter 4. Politics and social needs . . . . .	71
4.1. Human needs and economic development . . . . .	71
4.2. Measurement of development . . . . .	75
4.3. Public choice theory on beneficiaries of economic policy. . . . .	81
4.4. The behaviour of voters . . . . .	87

Chapter 5. Normative elements of public and economic policy . . . . .	91
5.1. What is public policy? . . . . .	91
5.2. Endogenous context of public policymaking . . . . .	94
5.3. Government, its goals and decisions on policy . . . . .	97
5.4. Kinds of public policies and relations between them. . . . .	102
5.5. Economies and economic policy in social sciences . . . . .	107
5.6. Relations between political economy, economic policy and economics . . . . .	110
Chapter 6. Introduction to the positive theory of economic policy . . . . .	115
6.1. Relations between elections and economic situation. . . . .	115
6.2. Economic impact of democracy and its elements . . . . .	120
6.3. Introduction to the political business cycle . . . . .	125
6.4. Kinds of political business cycles. . . . .	128
6.5. Empirical verification . . . . .	132
6.6. Central bank independence and macroeconomic results . . . . .	137
6.7. Partisan central bank hypothesis . . . . .	140
References . . . . .	143

Figures

Figure 1. 15 countries of the highest value of the Failed States Index, 2012 . . . . .	18
Figure 2. 15 countries of the lowest value of the Failed States Index, 2012. . . . .	18
Figure 3. Kinds of human behaviour and sciences describing them . . . . .	28
Figure 4. Forms of government. . . . .	33
Figure 5. Proportion of countries that held legislative elections, 1800-2000. . . . .	37
Figure 6. Global trends in armed conflicts, 1946-2011. . . . .	38
Figure 7. States experiencing warfare, 1946-2011. . . . .	39
Figure 8. Global trends in governance, 1800-2010 . . . . .	40
Figure 9. Eligibility, turnout, and participation, 1815-2000 . . . . .	40
Figure 10. Fully democratic countries, 2014 . . . . .	42
Figure 11. 15 countries of the lowest value of the Democracy Index, 2014 . . . . .	42
Figure 12. Electoral Democracies, 1989-2014. . . . .	43
Figure 13. Freedom status, 1972-2014 . . . . .	44
Figure 14. Number of countries with improvements or declines in freedom, 2005-2014 .	44
Figure 15. 10 countries with the highest and the lowest number of parliamentarians in Europe, 2014 . . . . .	49
Figure 16. Number of members of upper and lower houses in Europe, 2014 . . . . .	50
Figure 17. Number of members of parliaments in Europe and explanatory variables, 2014. .	51
Figure 18. Population and parliamentary size in 135 countries, 1970 . . . . .	52
Figure 19. Market of electoral votes . . . . .	53
Figure 20. Promises, accountability, and votes . . . . .	54
Figure 21. Policy preferences and perception of policy differences between left- and right-wing parties . . . . .	55
Figure 22. Number of countries where political parties receive direct/indirect public funding, 2014 . . . . .	60
Figure 23. Diagram of Maslow's hierarchy of needs . . . . .	71
Figure 24. Progress to higher human development groups since 1990. . . . .	77
Figure 25. Life expectancy and its changes between 1980 and 2003 in selected countries .	78
Figure 26. Life expectancy and HDI values in 1980 and in 2003 in all the countries . . .	80
Figure 27. The hump-shape hypothesis of Calmfors and Driffill . . . . .	85
Figure 28. Corruption Perceptions Index 2014 . . . . .	86
Figure 29. Visualisation of framework of public policy analysis . . . . .	93
Figure 30. Groups of endogenous conditions . . . . .	94
Figure 31. Structure of governing context . . . . .	98
Figure 32. Kinds of public policies . . . . .	103
Figure 33. Branches of science—the place of economics. . . . .	107

---

Figure 34. Branches of economics—German view . . . . .	108
Figure 35. The democratic policymaking process . . . . .	113
Figure 36. Optimal size of an electoral budget . . . . .	117
Figure 37. Unemployment and nationalism in Germany, 1923–1933. . . . .	119
Figure 38. From the Great Depression to WWII—sequence of economic and political relations . . . . .	120
Figure 39. Diagram of possible connections between democracy, the initial conditions associated with its emergence, and the consequences of an existent democratic system . . . . .	121
Figure 40. Proportion of democratic countries on different levels of development, 152 countries, 1951–1999 . . . . .	122
Figure 41. Kinds of political business cycles. . . . .	127
Figure 42. Inflation patterns in G7 countries, 1959–1993 . . . . .	133
Figure 43. Selected macroeconomic indicators for Hungary since 1995 with forecasts up to 2020 . . . . .	135
Figure 44. General government deficit (% of GDP) in Hungary and elections, 1995–2010 .	136
Figure 45. Relation between central bank independence and average inflation, GNP growth and unemployment, 1955–1988 . . . . .	138

---

Tables

Table 1. Democracy index, 2011 and 2014, by regime type . . . . .	41
Table 2. Freedom status, 2011 and 2014, by regime type. . . . .	43
Table 3. Institutional variation among western democracies . . . . .	47
Table 4. Probability of fiscal policy run by right, center and left governments in OECD countries . . . . .	57
Table 5. Top Interest Groups Giving to Members of Congress, 2012 Cycle . . . . .	58
Table 6. Total general government revenue (% GDP), selected countries, 1995–2014 . . .	83
Table 7. Constitutions and economic policy: Questions and findings . . . . .	124
Table 8. Influence of change in government to the Left on growth and unemploy- ment, 1966–1996 . . . . .	137

Boxes

Box 1. First articles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights . . . . .	16
Box 2. Case study—failed states . . . . .	17
Box 3. Is the Republic of China a sovereign state? . . . . .	32
Box 4. Meritocracy in Singapore . . . . .	35
Box 5. Number of members of parliaments in Europe. . . . .	51
Box 6. Is the social justice just? . . . . .	56
Box 7. Groups of interests and public policy: questions for discussion. . . . .	59
Box 8. The case of Obama’s campaign . . . . .	59
Box 9. Financing political parties and public policy—questions for discussion. . . . .	61
Box 10. Voting system in Chile . . . . .	63
Box 11. Selected social and economic human rights . . . . .	72
Box 12. The ‘Lee thesis’—the case of freedom in Singapore . . . . .	75
Box 13. HDI formula and other HDI-related indices . . . . .	76
Box 14. Bhutan—happiness as a public policy ultimate goal . . . . .	79
Box 15. Unions’ coordination and labour market: Calmfors–Drifflin hypothesis . . . . .	85
Box 16. Penalties for absentees . . . . .	88
Box 17. “Troll factory” in Putin’s Russia . . . . .	89
Box 18. Policy goals—objective or partisan? . . . . .	100
Box 19. Contradictory goals and policy inconsistency—the case of tobacco industry . . . . .	100
Box 20. Public policy lectures at Harvard . . . . .	103
Box 21. Weak internal policy as a risk for independence—the case of Poland . . . . .	104
Box 22. ‘Globalisation with a human face’. . . . .	106
Box 23. Theory of economic policy in Germany . . . . .	108
Box 24. Michał Kalecki—an underappreciated genius of economics. . . . .	115
Box 25. Economic situation and election results: the case of unemployment-driven nationalism in Germany. . . . .	118
Box 26. Elections and deficits in Hungary. . . . .	135
Box 27. Thomas Becket and his change of position on the Church. . . . .	141
Box 28. Partisan central bank in Poland? . . . . .	142