

Table of Contents

Introduction	XI
Acknowledgements	XVII
About the Authors	XIX

Part I. New Technologies on the Financial Market. General Problems

FinTech – Conceptual and Regulatory Problems. Some Introductory Remarks (Edyta Rutkowska-Tomaszewska)	3
1. Introduction	4
2. The concept, essence and areas of the FinTech sector	9
3. Benefits, threats and risks of new technologies in the financial market	14
4. New technologies in the financial market from a consumer protection perspective – selected issues	17
5. Conclusions, de lege lata and de lege ferenda proposals	21
Consumer Finance in the Digital World – Selected Issues (Agnieszka Wachnicka)	35
1. Introduction	35
2. The concept of new technologies in the market of financial services ...	36
3. FinTech vs. the traditional financial market	38
4. New technologies vs. cybersecurity	39
5. New technologies in the market of financial services vs. consumer protection	40
6. Conclusions	50
FinTech Regulatory Policy in the Legislative Agenda of the European Commission – European Approach Versus New Challenges and Opportunities (Piotr Galazka)	55
1. Introduction	56
2. Retail Financial Services Action Plan	57
3. FinTech Action Plan	58
3.1. Context and aim of publication of the Action Plan	58
3.2. Actions proposed	60

3.2.1. Enabling innovative business models to reach EU scale	60
3.2.2. Supporting the uptake of technological innovation in the financial sector	61
3.2.3. Enhancing security and integrity of the financial sector	63
4. Conclusions	63
4.1. Need for consumer protection of FinTech services	63
4.2. Same risk, same rules	65
4.3. Outlook for the new European Commission mandate	66
Activities of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority Supporting the Development of Financial Innovations in the Light of Proposed Changes (Magdalena Paleczna)	69
1. Introduction	69
2. Polish Financial Supervision Authority Innovation Hub Programme for Supporting the Development of Financial Innovation	71
2.1. Essence and objectives of programme	71
2.2. Participation in the programme	73
2.3. Interpretation of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority in the scope and manner of application of the provisions of the Act on Financial Market Supervision and executive acts	77
3. The Polish Financial Supervision Authority Regulatory Sandbox Project	78
3.1. Essence and objectives of the project	78
3.2. Testing entities	79
3.3. Sandbox Operators	80
3.4. Recruitment of Testers to the Sandbox Regulatory Programme....	82
3.5. Functional and operational requirements for the test environment	83
3.6. Obtaining permission for supervised activity and licensing procedure for Sandbox participants	84
3.7. Necessity of remodeling the Sandbox Regulatory Project by the Polish Financial Supervision	85
4. Conclusions	85
Institutional Legal Solutions in the Field of Education on the Financial Market in Poland (Lesław Góral)	89
1. Introduction	89
2. Public institutions responsible for financial education in Poland	90
3. Legal status of the Financial Education Fund	91
4. Organisation and tasks of the Financial Education Fund	93

5. Evaluation of current legal solutions governing the functioning of the Financial Education Fund	96
Development of New Technologies and Their Impact on the Financial Sector in the Context of Cyber Threats (Agnieszka Krawczyk-Jeziarska)	101
1. Introduction	102
2. The development of technology and the use of new communication channels by the banking sector.....	102
3. Scale and financial impact of cyber threats in the financial sector.....	105
3.1. The scale of cyber threats	105
3.2. Financial impact of cyberattacks in the financial sector	107
4. Raising awareness in the field of cybersecurity as a response to the increase in cyber threats	110
4.1. The level of cybersecurity awareness	110
4.2. Initiatives aimed at raising cybersecurity awareness	111
5. Conclusions	113
 Part 2. New Technologies on the Financial Services Market. Particular Problems
Marketplace Lending and Investing in Europe and the EC Proposal for a Regulation on European Crowdfunding Service Providers for Businesses (Eugenia Macchiavello)	119
1. Introduction	120
2. Cross-border crowdfunding and regulatory approaches in Europe: a fragmented scenario	122
3. Analysis of the Proposal of Regulation on European Crowdfunding Providers proposed by the European Commission.....	124
3.1. The context of the Proposal	124
3.2. The scope of proposed regime: opt-in, types of activities and products included and exclusions	125
3.3. A closer look at the ad hoc regime	126
3.3.1. Authorization and supervisory authority	126
3.3.2. The ECSP regime: Focus on conduct and disclosure requirements and prohibitions	126
4. Assessment of the EC Proposal.....	128
5. Recent developments: The European Parliament Resolution, the Council of the European Union's compromise text and the final agreement of December 2019	129
5.1. The European Parliament's response	129
5.2. The Council's compromise text.....	132

5.3. The text agreed in December 2019 and adopted by the Council on 20 July 2020	135
6. Conclusions	136
Innovation Technology and Creditworthiness Assessment
(Francesca Mattassoglio)	141
1. Introduction	141
2. Creditworthiness assessment and usable data	142
3. Credit rating assessment and automated analysis process	145
4. Benefits and defects of innovative assessment systems	146
5. Credit scoring for FinTech banks in the ECB guidelines	148
6. Conclusions	149
Online Consumer Credit and Consumer Protection through Information
(Michał Rafał Walczak)	157
1. Introduction	157
2. Information obligations in a consumer credit agreement concluded via the Internet	159
3. The concept of consumer protection through information in practice	162
4. The importance of financial education for the effectiveness of consumer protection through information	163
5. Conclusions	166
The Latest Regulations in Payment Services on the Banking Sector and their Implementation in Poland and Selected EU State Members
(Szymon Kisiel)	171
1. Introduction	171
2. Challenges for the banking sector according to the new regulations ...	172
3. The most important provisions introduced by PSD2	175
4. The implementation process of PSD2 in the chosen EU Member States	177
4.1. The example of Poland	179
4.2. The example of Germany	182
4.3. The example of the United Kingdom	183
4.4. The example of Sweden	183
5. Conclusions	184
6. Supplement. Exceptions, errors and threats in the process of application of new regulations on the example of the Polish bank...	185

New Technologies and Liability for Unauthorised Payment Transactions in the Light of Current Case Law (Bartosz Wyżykowski)	191
1. Introduction	192
2. Grounds for liability	195
3. Authorisation of a payment transaction	201
4. Strong customer authentication.....	203
5. Grossly negligent violation of prudential obligations by the payer	204
6. Conclusions	210
Virtual Currencies and Regulatory Issues (Gian Luca Greco)	215
1. Introduction	215
2. What are virtual currencies? Definition and regulatory options	217
3. Conclusions	232
Technological Innovations in the Insurance Market and Customer Protection Instruments (Aldona Piotrowska)	241
1. Introduction	242
2. Digitalisation and digital services	242
3. Negative impact on consumers in connection with the use of Big Data	244
4. Trends in technological innovations regarding the insurance market in EIOPA reports and entrepreneurs' obligations.....	245
5. Using telematics in insurance	246
6. Legal status of insurance comparison websites	247
7. Risks related to using insurance comparison websites	251
8. Obligations of comparison websites as insurance distributors	253
9. Conclusions	256
Digital Consultancy, Artificial Intelligence and Smart Contracts in Insurance Distribution. Selected Legal Problems (Mariusz Fras, Monika Szaraniec)	259
1. Introduction	259
2. Application of robo-advice, artificial intelligence and smart contracts in economic insurance.....	260
3. Robo-advice and civil law liability	262
4. Smart contracts in economic insurance law	265
5. The process of concluding insurance contracts and artificial intelligence	266
6. Regulatory and supervisory requirements relating to the introduction of new technologies on the economic insurance market.....	268
7. Conclusions	273